Catalog Description (35 words or less)  Please use catalog format and attach a copy of the syllabus for new courses.:
Explores the multiple dimensions of globalization and internationalization relative to public policy processes and consequences. Its aim is to offer substantive insight into contemporary public policy dynamics from a global and comparative perspective. Accordingly, it examines a broad range of international cultural, political, technological, and economic policy issues, and their interactions and implications at all levels of analysis. Engages relevant theoretical and methodological approaches and debates in order to provide students with tools for analyzing various world problems and policies.
